

Go Fish Education Center Aquarium Scavenger Hunt

- How many alligator snapping turtles can you find in our exhibits? _____
- List 3 fish species you find in each region/habitat found throughout the aquariums. Some species may overlap regions.

Mountain Stream	Piedmont Stream	Piedmont Reservoir	Coastal Plain Stream	Blackwater Swamp

- How can trees help trout survive in Georgia's 4,000 miles of trout streams? _____

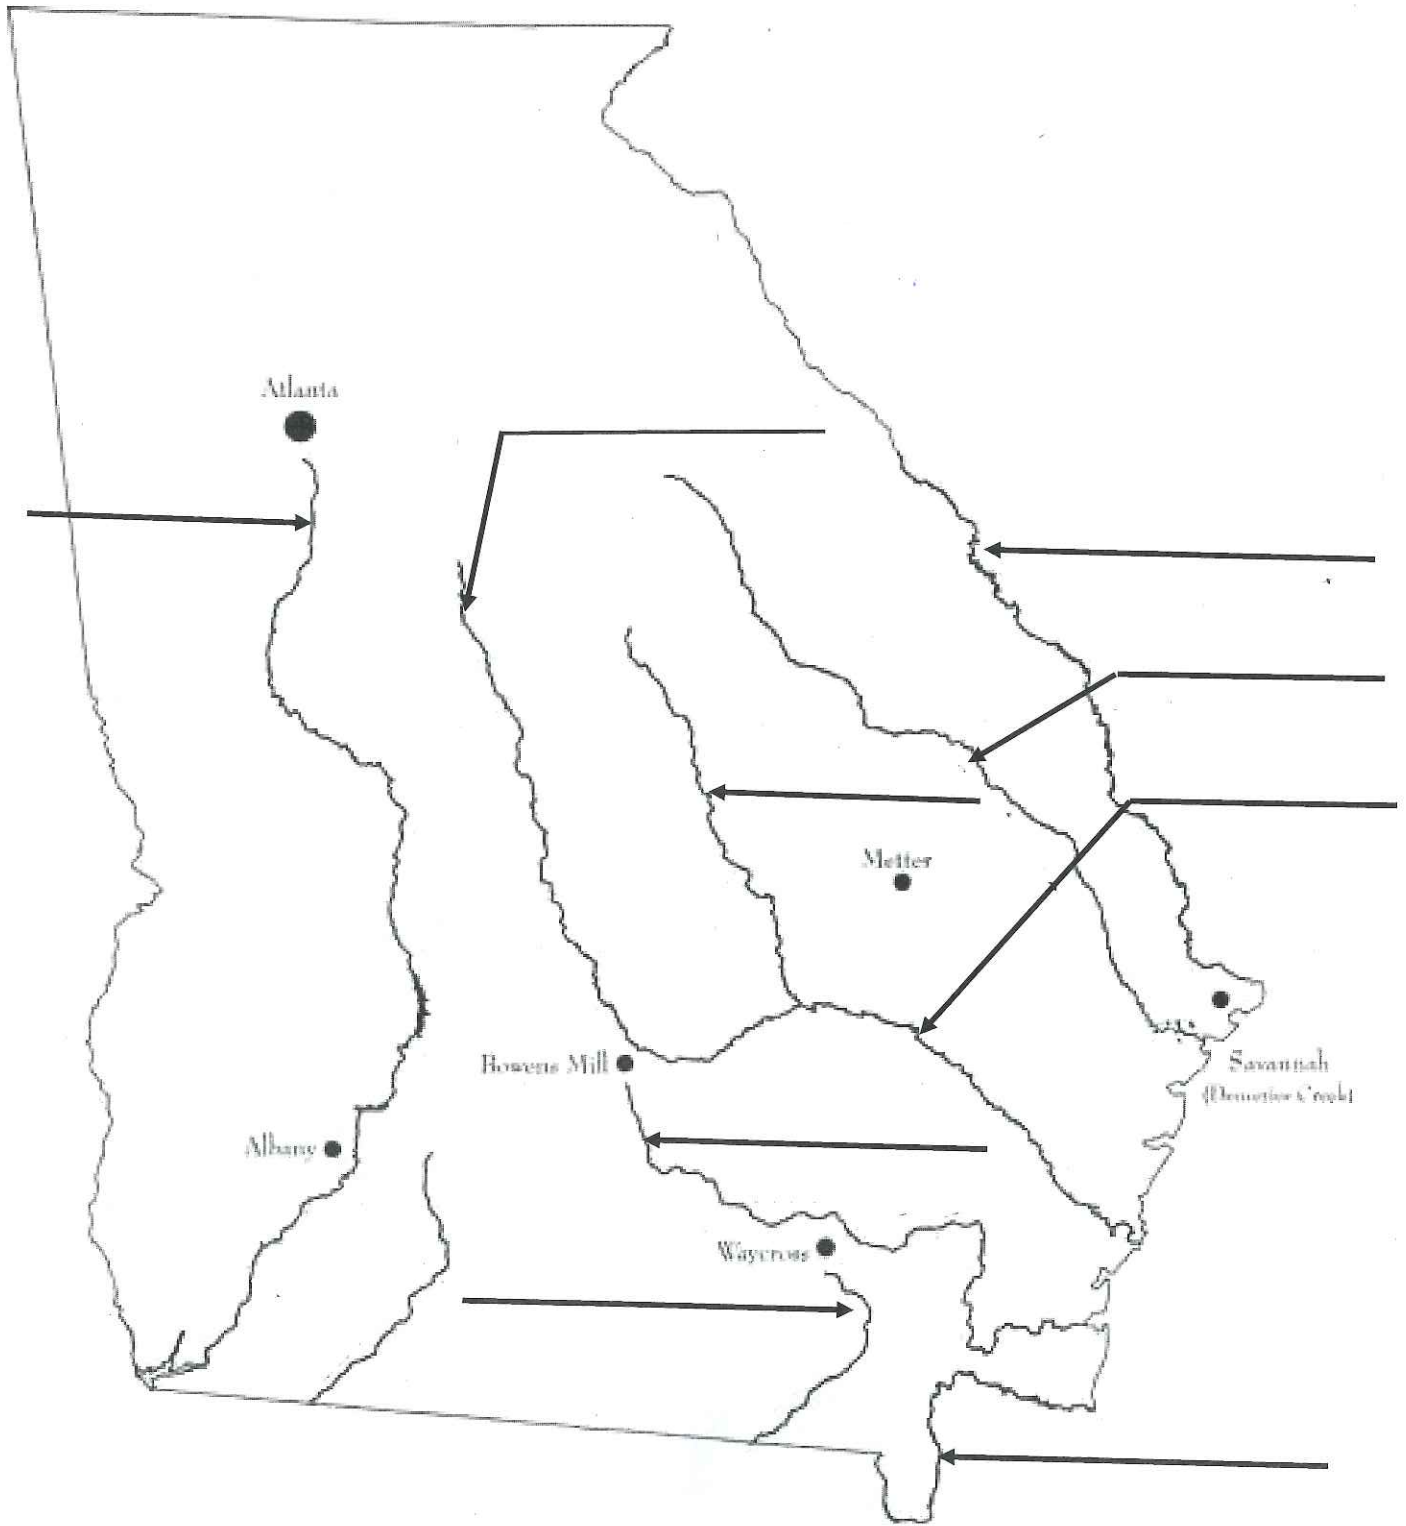

- What year was the robust redhorse rediscovered? _____
What river was it found in? _____
- What type of animal is a Two-Toed Amphiuma? _____
- What is the scientific name of the longnose gar? (Hint: Coastal Plain Display) _____
- What is the only catadromous fish in North America? _____
- Match the descriptions with the correct life cycle stage for the American eel (Anguilla rostrata).

Tiny Eel Larvae that drifts in the ocean currents	Elvers
Juvenile Eels without pigment/transparent	Yellow eel
Greenish-Brown eel approximately two inches long	Silver Eels
Remains in Georgia's rivers and streams for the majority of its life	Leptocephali
Returns to the Sargasso Sea to spawn and die	Glass Eels
- In which region/habitat of our aquariums can you find this symbol below? What does this symbol mean?

- How many live alligators can you find in our aquariums? _____
How many live in Georgia (approximately)? _____

11. The Coastal Plain region of Georgia is home to 9 major rivers. Fill in the rivers' names on the map.

Please return your pencil to the front desk when you are done.